LAURA MARION

Isn't It Rich? is an intoxicating and hilariously funny journey through one woman's life, where fascinating people, exotic places and lush events jump off the page in profoundly human and deeply disturbing ways.

Vivid, erotic and occasionally surreal, these beautifully crafted gems reveal a complex and vulnerable existence, framed by our need for romantic connection.

A Striking and Unconventional Poetry Debut from the Award-Winning Arts Journalist Victoria Looseleaf

Praise for Isn't It Rich?

"A hilarious, sparkling and rowdy Looseleafs Of Grass! Huzzah that the best poetry can be fun again!"

~ Sandra Tzeng Lok, Author, The Madwoman In The Volvo

"Victoria Looseleaf's poems are beautiful autobiographical short stories full of wit and grace. Isn't It Rich? Indeed it is."

~ Larry Karaszewski, Award-Winning Filmmaker

"This is poetry that lets you forget you're reading poetry, and that's a good thing."

~ Julia Kinsey, Editor of Artillery

"Her poems are like orgasms that make you want to laugh and cry at the same time."

~ John Phillips, Professional Surfer, Producer and Actor

"Victoria Looseleaf is a tall, thin, female Bukowski with good skin who is bent on bedding all in her cultural path. Isn't It Rich? is her confession."

~ Mary Woronov, Actress, Artist and Writer

Victoria Looseleaf lives and loves in Los Angeles. As an award-winning dance and arts writer, she has been filing datelines from around the world. The redhead provocateur has been a professional harpist, a late night TV host and doyenne of the underground.

Isn't It Rich? is Victoria Looseleaf's first book of poetry.

GEN F

An Anthology of Short Stories of Comic Tragedies, Humiliations and Reversals of Fortune for Those Displaced by Technology and the Economy

EDITED BY GORDY GRUNDY

"Reading Gen F gave me the feeling of being ecstatically high and more cold other simultaneously!"

~ John Phillips, Actor and Surfer

FOR OUR CONTEMPORARY TIMES

Gen F is a collection of short stories for our times, an ensemble of comic tragedies and humiliations for those displaced by a reversal of fortune, the toxicity of labor, psychological downsizing, class disparity, vanished industries, outsourcing, mortgage collapse, bank failures and stimulus recovery for the wealthy.

Praise For GEN F

"Startlingly fresh and eclectic anthology. It's everything!"

~ David LaChapelle, Artist

"Charles Bukowski would feel disturbingly at home in this darkly hilarious anthology!"

~ Sandra Tzeng Lok, The Madwoman in the Volvo

"Like Swirebeck's Tortilla Flat for the Internet Age. We need to read this."

~ Maxwell Williams, Technology Editor, Good Magazine

"Twens are the new short-story today, so this anthology might rank as the new long-form. When you join Holly Myers on the #302 bus going out on Sunset, your imagination drifting past all those changing buildings on the Strip, somehow you can sense a crash waits up ahead."

~ Christopher Knight, Art Critic, Los Angeles Times

"Every time Gen F changes direction, the new view is equally as interesting."

~ Greg Escalante, Curator and Co-Founder Juxtapose Art Magazine

"HA HA"

~ John Baldessari, Artist

"Gen F is a virtual roadmap to the end of the world."

~ Ed Moses, Artist

"There are 33 reasons to read this book. Read on!"

~ Hanser Dushajevska Philip, Rebels in Paradise: The L.A. Art Scene and the 1960s

"The voice of a new Lost Generation."

~ Gary Baslik, Author

Like something wild, unleashed from Pandora's Box, ARTIST'S PANTS introduces us to Gordy Grundy, an American artist with a penchant for comedy, tragedy and mayhem.

"I am a Libertine. I'd rather go to a Bacchanalia than to a Basilica. I am a lover, not a fighter. I'd rather dance than walk. I prefer indulgence to restraint. I am Pan."

His column 'Genuflect' has kept the art world in stitches. Now, the best-kept secret is out. It's our turn for fun.

This first collection offers 30 essays that will make you laugh long and laugh loud.

Praise for Artist's Pants

"Hold onto your cocktail and tighten your seat: Gordy Grundy's prose takes you on a trippy cruise through the laughable bourgeois art-world. John Cheever-style."

~ Julia Kinsey, Editor of Artillery magazine

"His writing accomplishes exactly that to which serious fine art aspires yet rarely achieves: it makes us see the world in a different way."

~ Shana Nye Dambrot, Arts Writer, Hullington Post

"The occasional sophisticate will pull me aside at an art world affair and ask, with great consistency, 'Tell me just who this fabulous Gordy Grundy is...' As you read this compilation, you'll soon genuflect with joy, and to get you to do so is why Gordy Grundy was put on this earth."

~ Mar Gleason, Editor of the Coagula Art Journal

"Mr. Wisecrack himself, Gordy Grundy offers insightful and humorous commentaries on the art world, especially relevant for readers who are considering jumping feet first into its treacherous waters."

~ Frances Colpitt, Art Writer and Art History Professor

"Simultaneously Prophet and Philistine, Grundy proclaims that the gravelly road to salvation may just as well be paved with the asphalt that has little gold flakes ground into it."

~ Michael Delgado, Executive Producer and Publisher

"It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend the works of Gordy Grundy."

~ Ronnie Binkley, Academy Award Nominee

THE HUMOR & ANGST OF A LIFE IN THE ARTS FROM COLUMNIST

GORDY GRUNDY

Tired of the same old crap? Comrade, join the revolution. It's flower power for the 21st century.

Fk Wittgenstein and screw Schopenhauer. Howard Venze tells it like it is in clear concise language.

Let's delve into the deepest subjects of time, identity, language, the nature of evil and other philosophical problems.

Guided by Marshall McLuhan and Julian Jaynes, we'll take a look at Descartes, Ramana Maharshi, Putnam and Avicenna, then ask, What is the sum of their cognition?

Check out the proof for God's existence. Are there any holes?

This is the manifesto of spiritual communism. God is the Totality of All of this; God is a collective state of mind in this Reality we all share. So wake up and join the Revolution!

The truth as far as spiritual practices go is, that which is timeless does not take time to be realized. So share what I have learned. Maya is measurement. Space is a measure of itself. Space has a reality to it. Time as duration is counted.

Time might be reality, but it does not exist. It's what we hang our thoughts on. It's You, the idea of you.
